SESSION FEES 2014 New Students

Accommodation at New College is on a per-semester basis.

Accommodation fees for residents are $8,297 per semester.
The rate for an ensuite room is $9,334 per semester.

Fees include boarding and food components.

Each semester period is of approximately 19 weeks, and covers the full period of the standard UNSW academic calendar.

Standard room semester fees are typically paid in two lots. The first is an initial deposit of $1000 to secure the place, with the remainder due by the date shown below. A bond of $1500 is also needed to secure a place, meaning that an initial payment of $2500 is required.

Semester One
Fee deposit payable upon acceptance of place at College $1,000
Balance of fees, payable on or before Friday 21st March $7,297 (or for ensuites, $8334)

Session Two
Fee deposit payable by Friday 20th June $1,000
Balance of fees, payable on or before Friday 22nd August $7,297 (or for ensuites, $8334)

Other Fees and Charges
Refundable Bond – payable once-only, on acceptance. Refundable on departure. $1,500
Registration fee – new residents only (once off, not refundable) $200
New College Student Association (NCSA) Annual Fee $160
O’Week Activity Fee (Semester 1) – new residents’ rate $185

If you have any questions about matter relating to fees and payments, please contact the New College Office on (02) 9381 1999

Updated 22nd November, 2013