Bursary Assistance

A limited amount of Bursary assistance is also available. The number of Bursaries varies depending on the need each year, but the value of financial assistance typically ranges from $1000-$3000 per bursary recipient per year. The typical support for bursary recipients is $1000 per semester.

Criteria: The assistance is offered to continuing and incoming residents and is primarily based on financial needs, with academic merit and other special needs also being considered.

Value: Usually $1000-$3000.

Please return this form by 28 February. Bursary support is typically allocated during Semester 1 and is only available to residents on 48 week contracts at NCV.

Overleaf, please write down the percentage of your College fees which you expect will be covered by each of the following.

We may ask for additional information to be provided if you don't supply sufficient evidence accompanying this application.

Where available, photocopied statements from Centrelink or Tax Returns that supports the information provided is important. You may blank out TFN details, etc.
